

THE UNITED STATES COURT.

Forming the Juries—Charge by Judge Bryan—A Batch of Revenue Cases.

In the United States Circuit Court yesterday, held by Judge Bryan, the marshal produced the additional jurymen who had been summoned in obedience to the order issued by the court last Monday, and from these and the persons who were already in attendance the following grand and petit juries were formed:

Grand Jury—Henry S. Tew, foreman, Christ Church; Winchell M. French, Beaufort; Paris Simkins, Edgewood; Bartholomew Foley, Charleston; Alfred A. Barbot, Charleston; Wm. Wall, Charleston; W. A. Benton, Cheraw; Aug. E. Cohen, Charleston; Benj. A. Nerland, Blackville; Joseph H. Jenks, Charleston; Chas. N. Hoyt, Charleston; Leander A. Bigger, Columbia; James B. Patrick, Charleston; Wm. A. Halsey, Charleston; Philip Myers, colored, Charleston; Robert Turner, colored, Charleston; Francis C. Desverney, colored, Charleston; David Blackney, colored, Charleston; Squire Hall, colored, Winnsboro; Wm. Chase, colored, Charleston; Thos. A. Davis, colored, Charleston.

Petit Jury No. 1—James Milleson, foreman, Cheraw; Donald Matheson, Bennettsville; J. S. Mills, Chester; Jas. Battie, colored, Winnsboro; Alfred Birch, colored, Charleston; Lee Brewer, colored, Charleston; Braxton Brown, colored, Conwayboro; James B. DeCoster, colored, Charleston; John S. Edwards, colored, Charleston; Robert Howard, Jr., colored, Charleston; David J. J. Johnson, colored, Charleston; Henry Kennedy, colored, Anderson.

Petit Jury No. 2—Alexander F. Black, foreman, Charleston; Wm. J. Crawford, Fairfield; Charles A. Darling, Columbia; James Dobbin, Charleston; Thomas F. Fosberry, Charleston; Campbell W. Getty, Charleston; James F. Greene, Charleston; Stephen Hare, Charleston; Thomas Bamfield, colored, Charleston; Dennis Bunch, colored, Charleston; Samuel Dickerson, colored, Charleston; William A. Hayne, colored, Charleston.

There are also twenty-four supernumeraries, of whom fifteen are colored.

Judge Bryan delivered a temperate, well considered and dignified charge to the grand jury. He read the rules prescribing the duties of the grand jury, and impressed upon them the solemn obligations they imposed upon each juror. They should discharge their duty with courage and integrity, and not be deterred from their duty by fear or favor. The evidence upon which they framed indictments should be complete and satisfactory, and they should accuse no man without proper regard for the law, and should not be actuated to present any one from enmity. Everything should be done by the juries for the public good, and in the deliberation of their duty neither a friend nor an enemy should be considered. They should be thoroughly persuaded of the real merits of each case before passing upon it. Probabilities should not enter into the deliberations of jurors. He said that he would not touch upon matters that were not before him, but confine himself to the special matters introduced by the district attorney, which consisted of alleged violations of the Internal Revenue law, postoffice law and the law of mutiny.

Convictions were found against the following persons for having tobacco in their possession with a view to evade Section 48 of the tax act of June 30, 1864, and they were fined as follows: Bower L. Barnwell, $200; Marlein Kaphan, $50; Patrick Cantrell, $200; James R. Cunningham, $200; Andrew M. Hill, $100; L. M. Fouché, $100; Philip M. Cohen, $250; Clara Moses, $100; Thomas G. Massey, $150; Thomas P. Qualles, $100; James T. Robertson, $200; John C. Frazer, $50; Andrew B. Wardlaw, $200; Leonard W. White, $200.

The grand jury found bills of indictment against M. Fletcher Horne for opening letters in violation of Section 12, act of July 1, 1864; against John Harman, alias Richard Lawless, alias John McCants, alias Patrick West, for revolt; against M. W. Barber for violation of revenue laws.

Andrew Ramsey and Jacob H. Runkle have been appointed commissioners of the United States Circuit and District Courts of this State for Edgewood and Newberry Counties, respectively, and have been sworn into office.

Court of Common Pleas.—The following is the calendar for to-day in the Court of Common Pleas, held by Judge Graham: J. E. Duc vs. J. F. O'Neill; C. M. Furnan vs. E. R. White, et al; Home Loan and Building Association vs. M. E. Hutchison, administrator; Wm. Watson & Co. vs. E. M. Boyken, trustee; Robt. Young vs. J. D. Kelt.

THE BRUDERLICH BUND entertainment last evening, at their hall in King street, passed off as pleasantly and merrily as usual. The singing, which came first, was highly enjoyed, and the "Pomp Mitten Berline" kept the audience in a laugh throughout its performance. Dancing closed the amusements of the evening.

FAST DAY.—To-day is to be observed by the Methodist Churches throughout the State as a day of fasting and prayer, it having been resolved at the last annual conference "that the first Friday in April and September be observed throughout the conference as days of fasting and prayer to Almighty God for an increase of labor in His vineyard." Services will be held at Bethel, by Rev. W. Lightman, at 11 A. M., and at Trinity Church, by Rev. Whiteford Smith, D. D., at 4 P. M.

OUR PRICES CURRENT.—We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS Prices current, issued this morning. Made up with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new type, it forms, with the business card of the house forwarding it, the most attractive and welcome weekly commercial circular that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards, two and a half cents per copy; single copies five cents.

THE KE-KLUX PRISONERS.—Two more prisoners, — Hughes and — Hawkins, from Union County, arrived here yesterday from Columbia, where they have been confined since the last session of the United States Court. Most of the prisoners and witnesses were transferred yesterday from the County Jail to the House of Correction. Fifteen of the prisoners, however, petitioned to remain in the county jail, preferring rather "to endure the ill they had than fly to others that they knew not of," and their request was granted.

CURMS.—The Savannah and Charleston Railroad Company stock advertised by H. H. DeLeon was sold yesterday morning at from $4 62 1/2 to $5 25 per share.

Fair weather and easterly winds is the pleasant prophecy of the weather clerk to-day.

The delegates from this State to the National Colored Men's Convention leave this morning for New Orleans.

Hook and Ladder Company No. 3 last Tuesday evening elected the following officers: W. T. Elfe, foreman; Thos. Osborne, assistant foreman; R. C. Brown, secretary; A. V. Rodie, treasurer.

Each company of the Steam Fire Department is requested to send a committee of three to meet at the hall of Hook and Ladder Company No. 2, next Tuesday evening, on important business.

IMPORTANT TO CIGAR DEALERS.

How the Unwary are Entrapped—BeWARE OF THE INFORMERS.

Yesterday morning, John Law, a well-known dealer of this city, was brought before the United States commissioner charged with having sold an old cigar box upon which the revenue stamp had not been destroyed. The fact of the selling was established; but as it also appeared from the evidence that the box had been unknowingly sold by a clerk, and in the absence and without the knowledge of Mr. Law, the latter was discharged.

On the day preceding, Mr. J. H. Doscher was also brought before the commissioner on the same charge, and having no excuse but his ignorance of the piece of statute law, he was bound over for trial at the present term of the Circuit Court. The informer in both cases was Lieutenant A. E. Phillips, the ex-chief of detectives. In the latter case it was shown that he went to Mr. Doscher's store and asked for the cigar box.

The law upon this point is explicit in forbidding any one to sell or dispose of old cigar or tobacco boxes without first obliterating and destroying the revenue stamp upon it; and when such a case, however trifling, is brought before a commissioner, he has no choice but to bail or commit the offender for trial. As this provision of the law may not be generally known to shopkeepers, they are liable to harassing prosecutions, as in the case of Mr. Doscher, when they are entrapped into the committing themselves by informers. Of these there are many, who, catching up some point like this, go about on the watch to take advantage of the ignorant or unwary. Keep a lookout for them.

PERSONAL.—Colonel John S. Cothran, of Abbeville, S. C., is in the city and staying at the Mills House.

Miss Lydia Thompson and seven of her blonde burlesquing beauties are blooming at the Mills House.

IMPROVEMENT.—The old wooden two-story building on King street, adjoining the new German Church, on the north side, is being rapidly pulled down. This greatly improves the appearance of the church from the street, while it does away with the danger of fire, &c., from the proximity of this wooden tinder-box.

TAMPERING WITH LETTERS.—M. Fletcher Horne, assistant postmaster at Timmonsville, in Darlington County, was brought before United States Commissioner Porteous yesterday, charged with violating the postoffice law by detaining and opening a letter containing money, passing through his office. The prisoner was bound over for trial at the present term of the Circuit Court.

TO BE LOOKED INTO.—The death of the little foundling, which took place on Tuesday, day succeeding the night on which it was left on the steps of the porter's lodge at the Orphanhouse gate, is to be investigated. The child was thought to be about ten days old, and the physician who attended it gave a certificate that it died from exposure. The body was disinterred yesterday from Potters' Field where it was buried, and an inquest will be held upon it to-day.

CLUBS AND STARS.—Annie Heyward, colored, lodged for raising a disturbance in Elliott street, near Church, was sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar or go to the House of Correction for ten days.

H. Harbo, arrested on the charge of disturbing the peace of a trial judge's office, was discharged.

Two intoxicated persons, who were found lying in the rain on the streets, were taken to the Guardhouse. One excused himself, and the other paid up a fine of one dollar.

THE EPISCOPAL ORPHAN SCHOOL.—Rev. A. Toomer Porter acknowledges the receipt for the Orphan School-house of fifty dollars from a father and son, ten dollars from a friend and five dollars from a friend, in response to a number of circulars sent out by him. These are generous responses, but there are still many of the recipients who have not been heard from, and who, by following the liberal examples above given, be conferring a substantial benefit upon a most deserving institution, and aiding the fatherless children of our State to acquire such an education as without the agency of this school they would never be able to obtain.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—The following pieces of real estate were sold yesterday morning by H. H. DeLeon at auction:

Building lot at the corner of Charlotte and Washington streets, forty feet in front by one hundred and fifteen feet deep, for $600—one half cash, and the balance in one year.

Lot No. 493, with two and a half story frame building, on the southeast corner of King and Warren streets, twenty-five feet in front by fifty-eight feet deep—for $225.

Lot No. 491, with two story frame building, on King street, next south of the above, twenty-five feet in front by sixty feet deep—for $975.

Lot of land, with four tenements, on the south side of Warren street, adjoining the above property to the west, twenty-six feet on Warren street by fifty feet deep—for $1300.

Lot No. 10 Pitt street, with frame building, forty feet in front by one hundred and two feet deep—for $750.

Lot No. 11 Kirkland's Court, forty feet in front by one hundred and two and a half feet deep—for $500.

Lot No. 96, with two story dwelling, on the north side, and at the west end of Beaufain street—for $1200.

Lot No. 98, with a two story dwelling adjoining the above to the west—for $1400.

Lot No. 400 on the east side of King street, with two and a half story brick street, third door south of Buras Lane, thirty-one feet on King street by one hundred and fifty-six feet deep—for $875.

Lot at the west end and on the south side of Beaufain street, at the southeast corner of Gadsden street, two hundred and eighty-five feet on Beaufain street—for $5000.

Lot on Ashley River, west side of above, two hundred and fifty-five feet on Beaufain street, and between Barre and Gadsden streets—for $5000.

Water-lot, adjoining the above to the west and extending a-o'g the south of Steinmeyer's steam mills to the channel of the Ashley, three hundred and twenty feet front by six hundred and forty feet deep—for $2200.

Terms of the above sales—one-third cash and the balance in one and two years.

THE LICENSE LAW.—Since the first of April a large number of licenses have been issued on application in the city, and the officials charged with the granting of the same are still busily employed. As some doubt still appears to exist as to the time that is to be allowed for the taking out of licenses, it may be well to repeat the notice already given in THE NEWS, that all persons coming under the provisions of the license act will be allowed until the 25th of the present month in which to take out their licenses. At that time all who have failed to comply with the law will be reported to the attorney-general or the circuit solicitors, who are required by the law to prosecute forthwith the delinquent parties.

THE LYDIA THOMPSON TROUPE.

A Crowded Audience and a Brilliant Initial Performance.

The beautiful burlesquers of Miss Lydia Thompson's new troupe took simultaneous possession of the Academy of Music and the hearts of its crowded audience at their initial performance last evening. The merry travesties upon the doleful legend of Blue Beard was irresistibly comical, and with its rollicking humor, its exuberant puns, and its accompaniments of charming dresses and lovely forms, it brought down the house. Miss Lydia Thompson was the janiest of sous-lieutenants; Miss Eliza Weatherly, the jolliest of O'Shabacacos, and Miss Nellie Kamp the pearl of pages. We give place aux dames, as is our duty, but the success of the evening was won by Willie Edouin, the Heathen Chinee, whose eucure scene from the tale of Truthful James was applauded to the echo. To-night will be given the legend of the love-lorn Lurline.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. William Hookaday, the aged and popular keeper of the livery stables in Columbus streets, and lately lodged in King, near the corner of Spring street, was thrown violently from his buggy yesterday morning, and severely injured. Mr. Hookaday was driving a spirited horse in his buggy, when the reins broke near the bit and threw him out. His head struck a curb stone in the fall, and was badly cut just over the left ear. He was taken up insensible, and his hurt was attended to at once by Dr. Mitchell, who was quickly summoned. The wound on his head did not recover his consciousness until some time after his wound was dressed, but at last accounts was doing well.

PIL IODOFORM AND IRON. A powerful general tonic and alterative. The great remedy for Scrofula, Neuralgia and Rheumatism.

We give below a brief extract from a report of the Leigh County Medical Society, as published in the transactions of the Medical Society of Pennsylvania, June, 1868:

"Internally, I gave quinine and iron and a good nourishing diet. With I found great trouble in keeping up healthy granulations, they would become sloughy. I tried a number of alteratives, as iodine of potassium and lime. Still the case progressed very slowly until my attention was attracted to an article in the Medical and Surgical Reporter, on Iodoform and Iron. I discontinued all other constitutional treatment, and gave three pills three times a day, manufactured by W. H. HANSEN & Co., of Philadelphia. I soon had the satisfaction of seeing a rapid improvement. The pain at once left her limb, with which she had suffered continually; the granulations became more healthy and more abundant, and I now have the satisfaction of seeing my patient enjoying in all her household duties. Not a vestige of the disease is to be seen. The patient is enjoying perfect health, is active and lively."

"Since I have treated a few other cases, one of three and one of four years' standing, with the same good result. I feel convinced of the efficacy of the remedy."
